

Ride High Pineapple Quatrains

By Jenny Woolsey

Issy likes to write quatrains. Quatrain poetry is a poem of four lines that alternate in rhyme. So, the first and third lines have a word rhyming with each other at the end, as do the second and fourth lines. The quatrain poem can also be written with two different rhythms, either 1,2,1,2 or as 1,1,2,2.

For example:

X-treme, X-treme, X-treme, Team Go!
All those tricks I want to know.
Up, up, up in the air so high
Your skateboards flip out in the sky. (p. 110)
